JESG Overlay Criteria

The J.P. Morgan Global Credit Index (GCI) ESG Investment Grade EUR Custom Maturity Index applies the J.P. Morgan JESG methodology as an overlay to the baseline Global Credit Index Investment Grade (GCI IG) EUR index.

For details on the ESG providers, scoring methodology, green bond treatment and exclusions, please refer to the corporate methodology detailed within the J.P. Morgan ESG Index Suite \(JESG\) Rules and Methodology.

ESG providers & Green Bond certification authorities	Sustainalytics RepRisk Climate Bonds Initiative
JESG Scoring methodology	JESG issuer scores are a 0-100 percentile rank calculated based on normalized raw ESG scores from third-party research providers Sustainalytics and RepRisk. An issuer's finalized JESG score incorporates a 3-month rolling average.
JESG Integration methodology	The JESG scores are divided into five bands that are used to scale each issue's baseline index market value, with the band rebalance occurring with a one-month lag.
Green bond treatment	If an instrument is categorized as a "green bond" by the Climate Bonds Initiative, the security will receive a one-band upgrade. Green bonds by issuers already in Band 1 will not receive any further upgrades.
Ethical exclusions & Negative Screening	Issuers are excluded based on the below criteria:
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Issuers with JESG scores less than 20 Issuers not in compliance with UN Global Compact principles as identified by Sustainalytics Issuers with revenue from the following harmful activities as identified by Sustainalytics[^]:

New Issues Eligibility

Eligibility for the index will be determined on a continuous basis by monitoring the index criteria. Any changes to the composition or eligibility will be announced prior to rebalance with an estimated schedule to provide full transparency to the investor base. A new issue that meets the index inclusion criteria is added to the index on the same month-end rebalance after its issuance, provided its first settlement date falls on or before month-end rebalance date. A new issue whose first settlement date falls after month-end will be eligible for inclusion the following month-end rebalancing.

Appendix

Index Total Return

The total return calculation for a single instrument is a means of representing the economic benefit of holding the specific security. For the calculation of individual instrument total returns, this cash is reinvested in the instrument when received. Total return for an individual bond between days (t-1) and (t) is calculated as shown below, using daily local market clean prices and accrued interest:

$$TR_t = \frac{P_{t+A_v(t)}}{P_{t-1+A_v(t-1)}} \times \frac{FX_{i,t}}{FX_{i,t-1}} - 1$$

Where:

TR_t = Bond level total return from day (t-1) to day (t) including both principal and interest

P_t = Local market closing clean mid prices of a bond on day t

$A_{v(t)}$ = Accrued interest for a bond on v(t) where the function v(t) are the value dates associated with trade date t and t-1 following market conventions

At initialization, an index is given a base value of 100 and then daily returns are applied as shown below:

Bond specific information is aggregated to the portfolio level using market capitalization-based weights. At the portfolio level, the total return of the index is the sum product of the individual bond returns and the individual bond weights of the previous day:

$$R_t = \sum_{j=1}^n TR_{j,t} \times wt_{j,t-1}$$

Where:

R_t = Index level return on day t

$TR_{j,t}$ = Bond total return on day t

$Wt_{j,t-1}$ = Bond weight on day t-1

This weighted return is then applied to the previous day's index value as shown below:

$$I_t = I_{t-1} + (1 + R_t)$$

Where:

I_t = Index level on day t

R_t = Index total return on day t

Disintegrating the Index Total Return

The index total return of a multi-currency portfolio can also be explained by five components: price return, interest return, treasury return, spread return, and spot return.

The rate of return for any day can be attributed in one of two ways:

1. Using the clean and coupon returns:

$$Total\ Rate\ of\ Return = (1 + Price\ Rtn)(1 + Interest\ Rtn)(1 + Spot\ Rtn) - 1$$

2. Or, alternatively, using the treasury and excess returns:

$$Total\ Rate\ of\ Return = (1 + Treasury\ Rtn)(1 + Spread\ Rtn)(1 + Spot\ Rtn) - 1$$
