* Based upon transaction activity data from risk management systems across asset class infrastructures. This data is approximated using open positions from a prior financial year end. Note that due to factors including legal entity migrations and levels of client activity, the data may represent a higher or lower notional amount when compared to actuals.

 J.P. Morgan Bank Luxembourg, S.A. has only applied for (and been authorized to) the use of the intragroup exemption for the following asset classes of OTC derivative contracts:

- 1) Currency (Type: Swap, Forward)*
- 2) Interest rate (Type: Swap)*

 Intragroup transactions between a UK counterparty and its US group entities are covered by the EU/CFTC equivalence decision dated 13 October 2017 in accordance with Article 13 of EMIR.

Exemption is pursuant to a derogation for an intragroup transaction between an EU counterparty and a counterparty established in a third country in accordance with Article 36(2) of the Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2016/2251 supplementing the EMIR Regulation (the "Margin RTS"), this is a time-limited exemption which will expire on either:

- 1) if no equivalence decision has been adopted in respect of the relevant third country, 4 January 2020, or*
- 2) if an equivalence decision has been adopted in respect of the relevant third country, the later of 4 months after the entry into force of such equivalence decision and the date on which the margin requirements takes effect (counterparties will need to reapply under EMIR Article 11 to benefit from the exemption).*

The use of exemptions is dependent on the on-going compliance of the counterparties detailed within the submission with the conditions set out in Article 11 of the EMIR.
