

Where can I find the Job Description for the role?

Login to the career website www.jpmorgan.com/careers using your credential used during job application and search for the requisition number provided in the subject line of the interview confirmation email.

How would I know the feedback of the interview I attended?

You will have to directly reach out to the recruiter who shortlisted your profile for interview. Name and email address of the recruiter will be mentioned in the email body of the interview confirmation email.

Who should I contact once I am at the interview location?

The point of contact information is mentioned in the confirmation email and you can ask for him/her at the reception.

What type of interview discussion would it be?

The interview discussion is majorly based on the hiring manager however it's generally a combination of technical and managerial rounds.

What documents am I expected to carry during the interview at the JPMC location?

A copy of your updated resume along with a valid photo ID.

How do I dial in to the Blue jeans meeting from home/office?

Refer to the Blue jeans instruction guide attached in the confirmation email

How can I refer my friends/colleagues for the interview I have been shortlisted for?

You can ask your friend/colleague to browse our JP Morgan career website and use the requisition number for which you have been shortlisted.